The screenshot shows a document titled 'jealous or just factual?' with a poem and its analysis. The poem text is as follows:

O Lady Kate, my cousin Kate, A
You grew more fair than I, B
has been He saw you at your father's gate, A watching Chose you, and cast me by, B
(stalking?) Kate He watched your steps along the lane, C
Your work among the rye, D
powerful He lifted you from mean estate, E
to sit with him on high, D

simple, monosyllabic sentences convey her hurt

Rhyme scheme makes it song like but where we might expect this to be joyful, it has the opposite effect.
